Brian,

The list of TRCP partners that are attending tomorrow's Policy Council meeting is attached. We're looking forward to hearing from Arvin and to seeing both of you. Thanks again for your help and participation.

See you tomorrow.

Morning Whit – could Arvin and I do 3pm on the 4th for 30 minutes. He would like to do a quick update on WOUS and Bristol Bay and answer any questions folks might have. Will that work?

Also assuming this is closed press so he can be frank in the discussion.

Also in the invite the letter didn't give the actual address beyond Mass Ave – could I get that from you.

Thanks, please let me know if this works.

Brian

Thanks, Brian. Yes, let's have Arvin come and talk about the rule to the Policy Council. Let me know what time might work for him.

Whit,

Apologies for the delay – I checked with both the Administrator and Deputy Administrators schedules – unfortunately there is logistically not a way to make this happen. If you can flag the next round of meetings to me I will lay down a marker on their schedules.

Question – however with all the activity on Waters of the US would it be helpful for Arvin Ganesan our Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy to participate (he is basically the lead for WOUS strategy). Let me know if that would be helpful.

Many thanks for your consideration.

Hi Whit

This is terrible – apologies. I don't recall seeing an invite come across her desk or the scheduling office. Can you send it to me and let me see what I can do. Brian

Brian:

We met briefly at the meeting at the White House in September.

I sent Gina a letter a couple of months ago inviting her to come and speak to our policy Council next week – December 4. We never got a reply.

Is there any chance of getting her there? The Policy Council is the collection of our partner groups (about 30), generally represented by their government affairs VPs. We're meeting from 11-4:00 here in DC. Would love for her to talk about the clean water rulemaking, Pebble, climate, or anything else. If that doesn't work, she would be welcome to come and talk to our board on either the 5th or 6th.

Thanks.
